NOVELTY (N), INVENTIVE STEP (IS):

Claims 1-18: All of the cited art, particularly D1-D3, disclose coated packaging for food within the scope of some or all of the claims as indicated in the International Search Report. It is noted that, in those cases that do not specifically refer to the presence of functional groups that react with the substrate and the contaminant, the coatings used inherently embody this feature. Thus the claims cannot be considered novel nor inventive.
